

Gaze plots

- A gaze plot illustrates an individual's viewing experience.
- It is made up of fixations or points when the eyes are still and taking in information.
- The fixation number indicates the fixation sequence and the size indicates the fixation duration.
- Attention is measured in terms of fixation count, gaze time, and fixation duration.